"DIRECT SUPPORT PROFESSIONAL"

Direct Support Professionals are responsible to provide "hands on" help to people with developmental disabilities (DD). This help includes assistance in every aspect that enables the person to learn independence and participate in their community as they choose.

Increased independence & meaningful participation in their local community is the goal. CLI is looking for nice, hardworking people who would enjoy sharing their interests with people with DD- and/or help them develop new interests and relationships.

If interested - please go our website at www.CLIsupports.com and scroll down to complete the "we are hiring" box to get started.
